[Laboratory Name] and ARUP Gateway™ offer a unique, joint test directory that provides access to [client] laboratory's tests, ARUP's referral tests, and information to guide test selection.

Through ARUP Gateway, [client] has direct access to ARUP Consult®, ARUP's online laboratory test selection support tool that is available to clinicians at no cost or obligation. ARUP Consult includes information about more than 2,000 tests organized into disease-related topics and testing algorithms based on clinical guidelines and best practices. ARUP Laboratories' medical experts, including faculty of the University of Utah and genetic counselors, ensure the accuracy and relevancy of ARUP Consult. Content is updated frequently throughout the year.

Gateway provides:

- Access to [client's] comprehensive test menu
- Guidance for laboratory test selection and interpretation
- Up-to-date test information
- Detailed information on collection requirements, transportation, reference ranges, and related test documents
- Additional laboratory information for staff and patients ensure the right test for the patient at the right time
